CARPENTERS RESUME WORK.

Differences at the Criminal Court House About Settled.

William G. Bergen. Superintendent of Repairs and supplies in the Department of Putlic Works, said this morning that the carpenters employed on the New Criminal Court-House building in Centre steect had quit work under orders from the Board of Walking Delegates, because P. Lantry, the contractor, was employing non-union men on tractor, was employing mon-union men on other contracts at less than the union stand-dard. About fourteen carpenters quit yesterday, but eight or nine of them, he said, returned to work this morning.

Beware of imitations, dilutions, and substitutes of Dr. Pierce's genuine medicines, offered at what pretend to be "cut prices." For the genuine, there's one price, and only one price — but, they're genuinteed. They're the cheapest medicines you can buy at any price, for if they fail to benefit or cure, you have your money back. You pay only for the good you get.

money back. You pay only for the good gon get.

To prevent fraud and imposition by unprincipled dealers, these genuine guaranteed remedies are now sold only through it druggists authorized as agents, and always at these long-established prices:

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery (for the Liver, Bleod and Lungs), $1.00.

Dr. Pierce's Faverite Prescription (for woman's weaknesses and aliments), $1.00.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets (for the liver, stomach and bowels), 25 cents.

Refuse all medicines purporting to be Dr. Pierce's offered at any other prices.

Speaking of Garfield Park reminds the writer that the track authorities yesterday asked Judge Brentano for an injunction restraining the police from interfering with the racing. Judge Brentano refused to grant the injunction, but referred the matter to Master-in-Chancery Barter.

Mr. Pierre Lorillard sent word to Tony Hamilton yesterday that he must refuse outside mounts. Hamilton replied that he was going to suit himself about outside mounts his contract gave him the right to take mounts outside of his stable, but at the same time he should hold himself in readiness to ride Rancocas Stable horses whenever he was called upon. Mr. Lorillard, it is said, will place the matter before the Board of Control, and try to have flamilton's license revoked. Of course, sai the turr magnates will applaud the spirit of justice and tairness that coover Mr. Lorillard in this matter. The sympathies of the public will be with Hamilton.

He had $1,000 to bet on Hanquet for his lather peatering. To one bookmaker he hance $540 for a $500 bet, and so another $460 for a bet of $500 bet, and so another $460 for monstrated the youngster haively replied: "Oh, there must be $500 here, for my inther gave me $1,000 and I just bet the other $500." The two bookles met and soon discovered the mistake.

Strange as it may seem, the racing talent are going to play an outsider at the Coney Island Athletic Club on Monday night. Jimmy Lynch is their choice in his fight with Johnny Griffen, and they can get betting at 2 to 1 against their favorite. Perhaps the fact that Misc Lynch, the Jockey, is a brother of the puglist has something to do with the sympathies of racing men.
